Series Info

All Time vs. Duke: 0-16 · At VT: 0-6 · At Duke: 0-9 · Neutral: 0-1

Notes: The Blue Devils lead the all-time series against the Hokies, 16-0, and first met in 1997 ... Sunday's game will be the ninth straight meeting in which Duke is ranked in the top 11 ... Tech opened its season in Durham last year and fell 17-9 to the No. 7 Blue Devils ... Julia Heaps and Megan Will, the Hokies' leading scorers this season, combined for four goals and an assist in last season's matchup.

Scouting Duke

Duke enters the weekend game with a No. 6 ranking and a 3-3 record. The Blue Devils hit the road this weekend for just the second time all year, and are coming off of an 11-10 home loss to No. 14 Georgetown. After winning its first three games of the year, Duke is in the midst of a three-game skid that also includes losses to No. 3 Maryland and No. 4 Northwestern at home.

The Blue Devils average 13.50 goals per game and are led by Kerin Maurer, who has scored 19 goals and assisted 11 more already this season. Taylor Virden has been a defensive threat for Duke with eight caused turnovers and 12 ground balls, also winning 20 draw controls.

In cage for Duke has been Kelsey Duryea, who boasts a .422 save percentage and the team's record. Duryea has made 44 saves so far this year, good for fourth in the nation.

Hokie Notes

- -- Four Hokies to rank among the top 25 in the nation in their respective categories. Junior Meg Bartley ranks the highest of the group, sitting at No. 8 in the country averaging 6.2 draws per game.
- -- Redshirt senior Julia Heaps set a career high with five goals and seven points in the season opener at James Madison.
- -- Redshirt senior Julia Heaps became the second Hokie on the 2014 roster to rank among the all-time best as her three assists against High Point moved her into tenth place.
- -- Three players (Bartley, Heaps, Macera) have scored in every game so far this season, while junior Megan Will in on a 10-game streak dating back to last season.
- -- The Hokies return six starters from last season, including five of the team's top seven scorers from a year ago.
- -- Tech has yet to suffer a losing season since head coach Megan Burker took over in 2011.
- -- Seniors Julia Heaps, Kelly Naslonski, Lindsay Roche and Becca Niles will captain the Hokies this season.
- -- Tech welcomes 10 freshmen this season, as well as two new assistant coaches.
- -- In this week's polls, seven of Tech's opponents are ranked nationally, with another receiving votes.

Against The Best

Being in the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Hokies play a number of the nation's best teams and players on a weekly basis. Tech began the season facing James Madison, who is receiving votes in the IWLCA Poll and ranks No. 20 this week in the Brine Media Poll. The Hokies opened conference play with No. 12/12 Notre Dame and face No. 6 Duke. All seven of Tech's conference opponents rank in the top 20 in both polls with six of them ranking in the top 10.

Although Tech is just 5-75 against ranked opponents, the Hokies have knocked off two ranked opponents in two of the last three seasons, and earned their first-ever defeat of a top-10 foe when they topped then-No. 7 Virginia in 2012.

Record Watch

Junior Meg Bartley has already broken into the all-time top 10, and ranks fourth with 143 career draws. She has also made her second notch on the single-seasons draw list, ranking second with 69 last year.

Redshirt senior Julia Heaps broke into the all-time assists list against High Point. Shecurrently ranks eighth all-time with 38.

Junior Megan Will's 42 goals last season landed her on the single-season scoring list, ranking seventh. She is on pace to break into the all-time scoring list this season, needing just nine more goals. She has scored 87 to date.

Will to be the Best

Junior Megan Will has scored in all five games for the Hokies and is in the midst of a scoring streak that dates back to last season. She neared a career high at Longwood, after setting the mark against Longwood a year ago, when she put away five goals and two assists.

Bartley, an Unexpected Surprise

Junior Meg Bartley walked on to the Tech lacrosse team in the Fall of 2011 and as the 2012 season began she made a quick and efficient impact. The Lewes, Del., native earned a starting job on attack by the fifth game, after scoring four goals and assisting another against UC Davis at home.

Bartley has been a huge threat for the Hokies on the draw and finished last season leading the league in the category. So far this season she averages six draws per game.

Easy Transition

Senior captain Kelly Naslonski gave the Hokies dependable production off the bench last season. Playing in 13 games and earning two starts, Naslonski scored 10 goals and finished the year second on the team with 13 assists.

So far this season she has had no trouble with her new starting role and has scored in three of the team's four games.

Seasoned Sophomores

As freshmen, Jessi Thon and Meghan Macera saw significant playing time and combined for 11 goals, 37 ground balls, 49 draws and 16 caused turnovers.

So far this year they have been key contributors again on both ends of the field, combining for 12 scores, 24 draws and nine caused turnovers.

Veteran Advantage

Redshirt senior Julia Heaps got her final season as a Hokie off to an impressive start at James Madison. Heaps has a career day, setting new highs in goals (5) and points (7), while inching herself closer to having her name on Tech's all-time assists list with two in the game.

In the home opener against High Point, Heaps made her way onto Tech's all-time assists list with three in the game. She is currently tied for 10th all-time with 35 career assists.
