

In 1994, Cage-Bibbs' Grambling State team lost to Vanderbilt 95-85 in her first tournament appearance. She also lost to Stanford 82-43 in 1996 and to Tennessee 91-51 in 1997.

Scouting The Lady Lions

The Lady Lions were seeded fourth each of the last two years, and have advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in both of those seasons. They are led by two-time Kodak All-American Kelly Mazzante (Montoursville, Pa.) who is averaging 20.8 ppg this year. Mazzante was recently named the Big Ten Player of the Year for the second straight season.

Tanisha Wright (West Mifflin, Pa.) who picked up her second consecutive Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Award this season, is averaging 14.5 points, 4.6 rebounds and 4.3 assists per game. The Lady Lions are led by Coach Rene Portland, who was named the 2004 Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Region 6 Coach of the Year. This year Portland led the Lady Lions to the 10th 25-win season of her career.

Key Matchup

Sunday's game will feature two outstanding young ladies at the guard position. Hampton University's Sharema Dean and Penn State's Tanisha Wright will go head-to-head as they attempt to lead their respective teams to the second round of the NCAA tournament.

Dean, (5-10, Fr. Guard) named Rookie of The Year in the MEAC, is the Lady Pirates second leading scorer with 13 ppg. She has posted six 20-point games this season, three coming in the last four games.

Wright, (5-11, Jr. Guard) is the Lady Lions' second leading scorer with 14.5 ppg. She earned her second consecutive Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year award this season.

Last Time Out

Hampton's game plan in the championship game of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference tournament was simple: Keep the ball out of the hands of Delaware State's two all-conference guards, Mandy Clark and Terrelle Waller.

Using a half-court trapping defense that disrupted the Hornets' offense and led to 26 turnovers, No. 2 seed Hampton posted its second straight MEAC title with a 65-50 victory over top-seeded Delaware State yesterday at the Coliseum.

"Their pressure forced us to put the ball in the hands of kids who weren't used to making the decisions that Mandy and Terrelle had to make with the ball," Delaware State coach Ed Davis said. "We were hesitating to do the right thing."

When the Hornets (21-9) made a mistake, Hampton (17-12) often capitalized and earned the MEAC's automatic NCAA bid.

"The defense has always been effective for us, because that's our offense," Hampton coach Patricia Cage-Bibbs said of her team's third title in five years. "We wanted to be more aggressive. We knew if we took it to them aggressively on the traps that it would affect the great passing of Mandy Clark and Waller."

The Pirates weren't able to put the game away until midway through the second half, in part because of 21 turnovers of their own.

A 30-20 halftime lead - built mostly because of 16 DSU first-half turnovers - had shrunk to 36-33 when Tameka Nugent hit a pair of free throws with 13:15 to go. Moments later, Brendy Ellis drained a 3-pointer from the top of the key to begin an 18-0 run that put it out of reach.

Ellis had 10 of her 13 points coming off the bench in the first half to take up the slack for freshman Sharema Dean, who was held to six points.

"I knew I had to keep up the intensity that was already on the floor," Ellis said. "Because they were focusing on Nicole [Brathwaite] and Rema, I felt I should step up and that's what I tried to do."

Brathwaite, who was named tourney MVP, had four points in the winning surge and finished with 15, and Kiesha Beard accounted for seven of her 16 in the pullaway. Beard also had 13 rebounds to help Hampton rule the glass 34-25.

In what was a rematch of last year's title game, the Pirates never were threatened after taking a 54-33 bulge with 7½ minutes left.

Clark led the Hornets with 16 points but was only 6 of 17 from the floor. Najmah Fauntleroy contributed 12 points and Waller added 11.

This was Hampton's 12th straight victory and quite a turnaround for a team that was 5-12 at the end of January.

"It was all chemistry," Cage-Bibbs said. "We had eight new players, and it's tough to put a team together with new people and expect to win. We had talent, but all we needed was for people to be patient with us. Give us time. We got the time and this is the end result."

Joining Brathwaite on the all-tourney team were Beard, Ellis, Dean, Clark and Sherrie Tucker (Coppin State).

All-MEAC

The Lady Pirates were well represented on the MEAC's postseason honor roll as three Hampton players were honored. Senior Nicole Brathwaite was the only first team selection, while Lynetta Sullivan represented Hampton on the second team. Freshman Sharema Dean brought home the Rookie of the Year award and the subsequent All-Rookie Team honors.

Return To Blacksburg

The matchup with Penn State at Cassell Coliseum will be the seventh trip to the arena for the Lady Pirates. Hampton has played in three tournaments hosted by the Hokies over the years, posting a 3-3 record. In their last appearance at Cassell Coliseum back on December 29, 2001 the Lady Pirates fell 43-83 to the Hokies.

Against The Big Ten

Hampton is 0-2 against teams from the Big Ten Conference with both losses coming this season versus Wisconsin (38-49) and Northwestern (45-58). Coach Patricia Cage-Bibbs is 0-4 all-time versus the Big Ten.

Winning Streak Is Nationally Ranked

Hampton is on a remarkable 12-game winning streak, equalling the University of Houston for the eighth longest in the country. The streak began with a 65-47 win at Morgan State on February 2 and the Lady Pirates have not looked back since. Even more impressive is that during the course of the streak Hampton has been winning by an average margin of 18.8 points per game

Defense Wins Championships

The Lady Pirates won their second consecutive MEAC Tournament with an explosive defense that is ranked fifth in the nation in field goal percentage defense at 35.1 percent.

Brathwaite Ranked 28th In The Nation

Senior forward Nicole Brathwaite is ranked 28th in the nation in field goal percentage at 55.7%.

Beard Is Growing

Junior forward Kiesha Beard has come on strong in the latter part of the season and quickly emerged as Hampton's top rebounder, ranking fourth in the MEAC at 9.0 rebounds per game. Beard has played in 22 games for Hampton this season after becoming eligible on December 28 against Duke. And during those 22 contests she has led the team in rebounding 12 times. In Hampton's game at North Carolina A&T (2-9-04) Beard tied a school single-game record with 22 rebounds. Her scoring has picked up as well over the past four games during which she is averaging 14 points and 10.5 rebounds, posting two double-doubles.

Sullivan Dishing It Out

Senior Lynetta Sullivan has been known as an excellent passer throughout her career, and this season is no different. From her forward position Sullivan, has dished out a team-best 102 assists. Sullivan registered a career-high nine assists back on December 6 against Norfolk State.

The Points Are In The Paint

Hampton continues to outscore its opponents in the paint. MD-Eastern Shore allowed Hampton to score 44 points in the paint in the quarterfinal game of the MEAC Tournament and Coppin State surrendered 38 points in the semifinal game. In the last five regular season contests the Lady Pirates have averaged almost 30 points per game in the paint.

Brathwaite Making Run On Career Records

Since becoming the 19th player at Hampton to score more than 1,000 points early this season, senior Nicole Brathwaite has moved her way up the career record book in several categories. She is sixth in scoring (1,367), seventh in rebounding (848), first in free throws made (475) and first in free throws attempted (666). In addition, her 161 free throws made this season and the 221 free throws attempted rank second all-time for a single-season.

HU On The Run

The Lady Pirates have put together several large scoring runs through the course of this season, none bigger than the 18-point run against Delaware State in the MEAC Tournament Championship. Holding a 34-33 lead with just over 13 minutes to play, Hampton put together an 18-0 run that expanded its lead to 52-33 on a layup by Lynetta Sullivan with 7:33 to play. The run was the largest of the season for the Lady Pirates.

Dean Produces The Scoring

Freshman guard Sharema Dean continues to show the offensive skills that made her a McDonald's All-American at Coastal Christian Academy and MEAC Rookie of the Year this season. The Brooklyn, NY native has led the Lady Pirates in scoring eight times this season, including dropping 16 on the Duke Blue Devils who were ranked No. 4 at the time. The top-scoring freshman in the MEAC at 13.0 ppg, Dean has six 20-point games this season, three coming in the last four games. She scored a career-high 25 points in the regular season finale at Norfolk State and mirrored that effort with 25 against Coppin State in the semifinals of the MEAC Tournament.

Second Half Surge

The Lady Pirates have put together a string of 14 consecutive games where they have outscored their opponent in the second half. During that time Hampton has averaged 38.8 points in the final period, compared to 30 points for the opposition. In the MEAC semifinal the Lady Pirates put together their largest scoring half of the season with 51 points against Coppin State.

Controlling The Boards

Once again the Lady Pirates are among the top rebounding teams in the MEAC, leading the league in rebounding margin at +5.0 Hampton has outrebounded its opponents in 22-of-29 games this season, including 11 of the last 15. The Lady Pirates have outrebounded their opponent by more than 30 twice this season. They outrebounded Howard by 35 (62-27) during their January 26 meeting and on February 9 they pulled down 32 more boards (59-27) than the Lady Aggies of North Carolina A&T.

Lady Pirates Do It With D

The trademark of a Patricia Cage-Bibbs coached team is the scrambling, trapping defense and this year's squad is no different. Hampton's defensive efforts have been the primary factor in building a 12-game winning streak. On the season the Lady Pirates have held 20 opponents under 40 percent shooting from the field, and eight of those under 30 percent.

Hampton's Record When...

Leading at the half	16-0
Trailing at the half	1-11
Tied at the half	0-1
In overtime	0-1
Outrebounding opponents . . .	14-8

Game decided by 5-10 pts . . .	1-1
Game decided by 11 or more pts	15-8

Their best defensive effort came at South Carolina State back on February 7 when they held the Lady Bulldogs to .211 (12-of-57) from the field and 39 points.

In the last nine games Hampton has forced its opponents into an average of 25 turnovers per game, leading directly to 27 points per game for the Lady Pirates. Those 27 points constitute 37.5 percent of Hampton's offense during that nine-game stretch.

Brathwaite Reaches 1,000 Points

Hampton University senior forward Nicole Brathwaite became the 19th Lady Pirate to score 1,000 points with a 19-point, 13-rebound effort against the University of Toledo on December 9, 2003.

HU Assistant Has Big Ten Roots

Hampton University assistant coach Nadine Domond may be able to provide the Lady Pirates with some inside information regarding playing in the Big Ten Conference. Domond was a three-year starter and All-Big Ten selection for the Iowa Hawkeyes whom she played for from 1994 to 1998.

No Looking Back

A quick start may be Hampton's key to victory against the Lady Lions of Penn State. In games that the Lady Pirates have gone out early and taken a lead into the intermission they are a perfect 16-0. However, when the Lady Pirates trail going into halftime they are a mere 1-11.

Getting To The Line

The Lady Pirates are hoping to continue their trend of getting to the free throw line more than their opposition. In the last 14 games Hampton has shot more free throws than its opponent 13 times. On the season the Lady Pirates are 15-4 and when taking more trips to the line. Senior Nicole Brathwaite leads the MEAC in free throw attempts with 221 and free throws made with 161.
